HALLOWEEN TRICK-OR-TREATING POSTPONED TO SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1

KENSINGTON, PE - Due to a special weather statement forecasting heavy rain and strong winds on Friday, October 31, the Town of Kensington is advising residents that Halloween trick-or-treating will be postponed to Saturday, November 1.

The curfew will remain at 8:00 PM on Saturday evening.

The safety of children and families participating in Halloween activities remains the Town's top priority. The Town appreciates the understanding and cooperation of residents as this adjustment is made to help ensure a safe and enjoyable evening for everyone.
